a peek at the week

Religion: Chapter 2

Reading: We will continue reading the book, "Wonder." We will also begin our monthly Storyworks magazine.

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR THE DONATIONS TOWARD THE REFUGEE NOVEL! I WAS GIVEN ENOUGH THAT I COULD PURCHASE A NOVEL SET OF ANOTHER TITLE! YOU ARE AWESOME, AND I CAN'T THANK YOU ENOUGH!!!!

Math: We've started our work with ratios and will continue with ratios and begin learning about unit rate next week.

Social Studies: We will continue Chapter 1, entitled What Does a Historian Do?

Science: We'll continue working on some STEM challenges.

Spelling: Lesson 4 book assignment will be due on Thursday and the test will be on Friday.

Sept. 16 - JPll Family Picnic 5:30-7:00

Join in some fun and fellowship with other JPll families. Please bring a lawn chair or blanket. Hot dogs, chips, bananas, cookies and water provided. There is a painting activity planned for the kids, so please dress accordingly.

The 6H kids who had Mass parts on Wednesday did an AWESOME job!

a note from the teacher:

Student Council speeches will be Wednesday, Sept. 11th at 2:30 in the gym. Candidates can begin hanging up posters on Monday, September 9th. Best of luck to everyone willing to put themselves out there and run for these positions!
